(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH. N. C., March 27.—In the Supreme Court this morning there was argument in a case involving the line between North and South Carolina, the title being State vs. Barrington, from Union being State vs. Barrington, from Union county. Barrington was arrested for assault, and set up the defense that although the place where the assault was made had always been considered as North Carolina territory, the running of the State line recently by the commission appointed by the Governors of the two States had shown the place to be really South Carolina territory. The court below held that for the purposes of the prosecution the location of the fight was North Carolina territory, despite anything shown to the contrary by the line just run.

DURMAM, N. C., March 27.—A squabble has been brewing, in the tanks of the Republicans of this country, for some time, in which has developed a fight for the Durham postofilee appointment. C. T. Pearson, the newly elected chairman of the Republican Committee, and P. J. O'Brien, who is postmaster, are in the race for the appointment.

Prior to the time when he was named as chairman of the party, Mr. Pearson endorsed the application of Mr. C'Brien for his third appointment. The name of Pearson on the application of O'Brien looks a little strange and out of the ordinary, when it is considered that Pearson is a candidate for the same office.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DURHAM, N. C., March 27-J. W.
Tatum, of this city, has secured patent on a device, that if successful, will prevent a great many railroad wrecks. The device of Mr. Tatum is in the nature of a tolphone. There is something like a trelley whre arrangement over the railroad track and in each cab is a telephone. The gong on the telephone sounds when two trains approach within somethink like three miles of gach other. Then there is another, feature. An engineer can ring up, and talk to another engineer twelve miles away when both trains are running at full speed. In this manner one engineer can ascertain at any time, when there is another train on the same track, and from the engineer get the orders and intention of each man at the throttle.

Several of the company officers tried in vain to get him off the tracks, for it was feared he would touch the third rail at any moment. The police were informed, and six reserves ran from the East Fifty-first Street station to the scene, but the man refused to come down. The police divided, three of them going to the Forty-seventh and three to the Fifty-third Street stations. They walked down the tracks toward the man, but the moment he saw them he danced the more and tried to escapes. He was finally surrounded and taken ato, the station house.

Very Active, Market Firm.

The receipts on the produce market have been light for a week past and were very light yesterday. Chickens are somewhat higher than they were a week ago, owing to their scarcity on the market. Eggs are also rather hard to get, this being settling time and the good farmer's wife is not allowing her eggs to come to market.

Nearby country produce generally is scarce and it requires increased shipments of all manner of truck from the fair South to meet even the limited demand. Cabbage and salads are especially scarce and high.
